Karuk Administration Building

BIDDING DETAILS: Bidders must submit a sealed bid at the Karuk Tribal Administrative Office at 64236 Second Ave. Happy Camp, CA prior to the date of the auction. Once you submit a bid, you cannot cancel it, but you can replace it with a higher bid. When you submit a new higher bid, it replaces your previous bid. At the end of the Auction, the bidder with the highest bid wins as long as that bid meets the minimum price set, and bidder is a Karuk Tribal Member.

INSPECTION: Due to limited staff, inspection may ONLY occur on the dates listed above. All vehicles are sold in "AS-IS CONDITION". Obtaining a SMOG Certificate and Registration will be the responsibility of the Bidder. Title will be provided for vehicles upon removal. A Bill of Sale can be provided for the equipment.

PROPERTY REMOVAL: On the day of the auction the winning bidder will be notified. Winning Bidder is responsible for removing property and will not have any assistance from tribal staff. Winning Bidder will have ONE WEEK (until Friday 2/3/12) to remove the property. An appointment must be made to remove the property.
