Seeking Interest

Deadline: Open Until Filled

The Karuk Tribe is seeking interested Karuk Tribal Members, and others, to serve on the People's Center Advisory Committee. The Committee meets quarterly at the People's Center in Happy Camp, California.

The People's Center Advisory Committee is comprised of five members who serve three year terms. Tribal members, descendants, and members of the public are encouraged to submit to serve on this Committee.

Committee member's duties are to advise the People's Center Coordinator regarding business operations and planning for the People's Center. The Advisory Committee will advocate the role of the People's Center with the Tribal Council and other entities. The Committee will review and advise regarding Center funding, programs, policies and procedures, and activities. Committee members will actively participate in implementation of these activities, and will assist in fundraising events.

The Committee will review policies, procedures, and issues related to Center operations, and will help guide decisions related to the work of the Center.

The Karuk Tribe seeks a geographically diverse Committee. However, the People's Center is not able to provide stipends for meeting attendance at this time.

Responses should list the individual's availability, experience, qualifications, and interest for serving on this committee. A Questionnaire has been developed to assist with this and is available on the Karuk Tribe's website at www.karuk.us/jobs/

Submissions will be accepted by Sara Spence until the vacancy is filled.

You may mail your response to P.O. Box 1016, Happy Camp, CA 96039, email it to sspence@karuk.us, or fax it to (530) 493-1611.
