Summary and Background

The Karuk Tribe Housing Authority is seeking Kitchen Event Crew for Kahtishraam Wellness Center in the Yreka area. Individuals need to be a utility type person who can provide kitchen/food services for small (10 people) to big (500 people) events. Ability to work with others to provide food for children, adults and elders. The total amount of work will depend on event. Some activities happen during the weekday, evenings or weekends. You can choose times that works best for you, as we will create a list of Event Helpers we can call as events happen. It helps if you are passionate about great experiences and great service. Contracts will be awarded to those whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

Kahtishraam Wellness Center provides community support that serves 150-500 people. We have events such as Halloween Trick or treat; Christmas Visit with Santa; Youth Wellness includes basketball camp, culture activities and arts/crafts; Mental Health Awareness Drive thru; Easter Visit with Easter Bunny; Splish Splash water activities; Youth conference; GONA-Gathering of Native Americans Conference; movie nights; Summer Enrichment Programs, to name a few.

We believe strong communities are possible when we invest in our kids, our families, and our neighbors. To bring this into our community we provide ongoing support, development, and connections to others.
