Summary and Background

The Karuk Tribe Housing Authority is seeking Program Crew for Kahtíshraam Wellness Center (KWC) in the Yreka area. Individuals will work closely with KWC staff to provide oversight for group programs for small (10 people) to big (500 people) events. Ability to support youth, adult, elder group events. Implementation and supervise wellness activities, policies and guidelines for said programs. The total amount of work will depend on event. Some activities happen during the weekday, evenings or weekends. You can choose times that works best for you, as we will create a list of Event Helpers we can call as events happen. It helps if you are passionate about great experiences and great service. Contracts will be awarded to those whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

Kahtíshraam Wellness Center provides community support that serves 150-500 people. We have events such as Halloween Trick or treat; Christmas Visit with Santa; Youth Wellness includes basketball camp, culture activities and arts/crafts; Mental Health Awareness Drive thru; Easter Visit with Easter Bunny; Splish Splash water activities; Youth conference; GONA-Gathering of Native Americans Conference; movie nights; Summer Enrichment Programs, to name a few.

We believe strong communities are possible when we invest in our kids, our families, and our neighbors. To bring this into our community we provide ongoing support, development, and connections to others.
